NRA - PVF Endorses Rep. Carter Casteel for Texas' 73rd House District

Fairfax, VA—The National Rifle Association Political Victory Fund (NRA-PVF) is pleased to endorse Carter Casteel for re-election to the 73rd state House district in Texas.

“The NRA is synonymous with freedom, and gun owners in Texas’ 73rd House district are lucky to have a loyal friend like Carter Casteel (R-New Braunfels) represent them in Austin,” said Randy Kozuch, Director of State and Local Affairs for the National Rifle Association.

Rep. Carter Casteel’s steadfast pro-gun record in the Texas State House proves her resolute support of the Second Amendment. The National Rifle Association Political Victory Fund (NRA-PVF) recognizes this by giving Representative Casteel an 'A' rating this election cycle.

“We urge gun owners to vote for freedom on March 7,” continued Kozuch. “Texans value their freedom to own firearms and we are pleased to endorse Rep. Carter Casteel’s re-election campaign. Vote for freedom. Vote Carter Casteel.”

Established in 1871, the National Rifle Association is America’s oldest civil rights and sportsmen's group. Four million members strong, NRA continues its mission to uphold Second Amendment rights and advocates enforcement of existing laws against violent offenders to reduce crime. The Association remains the nation's leader in firearm education and training for law-abiding gun owners, law enforcement and the military.
